DROPS

A student may drop courses during the drop/add period. Dropped courses not to appear on the student’s transcript. No tuition or fees will be assessed for courses dropped by the fifth day of classes.

To avoid fee liability and academic penalty, the student is responsible for dropping all undesired courses by the end of the Drop/Add period specified at https://www.usf.edu/registrar/calendars/. Students are required to attend the first class meeting of courses for which they registered prior to the first day of the term.

Although the University has a mandatory first day attendance policy and faculty may drop students from courses, it is students' sole responsibility to ensure they drop to avoid fee liability. A faculty member's failure to exercise the right to drop a student for failure to attend the first day is NOT University error and is not justification for a refund.
